- Genuine opportunities for career advancement
- A commitment to supporting mental health.
- A reduced marking workload.
- A dedicated Teaching & Learning Support Practitioner for each class.
- Shorter Autumn term dates, to support the children's and staff wellbeing
- A private health insurance scheme
- Opportunities to work with other schools
- Creative CPD opportunities
- Performance management pay incentives
- A friendly, supportive team with a sense of humour.

You must have:

- The ability to always put the children first
- Positivity, energy and enthusiasm
- An ability to find solutions
- A commitment to raising standards
- The skills needed to work collaboratively with other staff
- A commitment to professional development, be reflective and act upon feedback
- The ability to engage with the wider community without being judgemental
- A sense of humour and a work/life balance
